FROM: Richard L. Stalder
Secretary
RE: Renaming of Work Training Facility/North

I am pleased and honored to announce that, effective July 31, 2003, the Work Training Facility/North will be officially renamed the J. Levy Dabadie Correctional Center.

Brigadier General Dabadie served in the Louisiana Army National Guard from 1949 until his retirement in 1988. In 1973, he was assigned as the first full time Post Commander at Camp Beauregard since World War II and served in that position until 1975. In 1976, he was appointed Chief of Staff and was promoted to Brigadier General in 1977. He distinguished himself and the Louisiana Army National Guard through the exemplary nature of his leadership. His contribution has been positive and permanent.

Please notify all appropriate staff of this change.

Thank you.
